

My family and I listen to two radio stations which use an FM translator service. These stations have helped my wife and I to reinforce positive ways to live vice the disrespectful/sexual talk on other stations. To give LPFM stations priority over these stations would do a great disservice to not only the current listeners, but also the country.